"HEW TO THE LINE, LET THE CHIPS FALL WHERE THEY MAY."

VOLUME 1. MAYSVILLE, WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 22, 1882. NUMBER 79.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

Published every afternoon and delivered in this city, the suburbs and Aberdeen by our carriers, at 6 CENTS a week.

It is welcomed in the households of men of both political parties, for the reason that it is more of a newspaper than a political journal.

Its wide circulation therefore makes it a valuable vehicle for business announcements, which we respectfully invite to our columns.

COUNTY POINTS.

MINERVA.

Miss Mary Perham is visiting at Mt. Olivet, the guest of Mrs. Dr. Wood.

Mrs. Dr. Reid has been very ill during the past week, but is recovering.

James L. Holton has moved to Dover, where he has taken an interest in the saw mill.

Sam A. Frazee has moved to the farm he recently bought of J. L. Holton.

John L. Sidwell moved this week on Henry Worthington's farm.

Mrs. Lizzie Reynolds sold her dwelling and lot in this place known as the "Philips place," to Fred. Burtner, for $800.

Carrie Reynolds has nearly recovered from a mild attack of scarlet fever. The three schools closed for two weeks on account of it, but there being no new cases they opened out on Monday last.

Joe Byar sold the blacksmith shop and lot adjoining the Catholic Church, for $250 to John Resor.

Dr. J. A. Reid has had a regular boom vaccination during the last two months.

Charles Smoot is having a new dwelling house erected on his farm near this place.

Mrs. John Morford and family, of Augusta, are visiting the family of G. F. Winter.

Miss Hattie Forman is visiting friends at Cincinnati.

Will Carpenter killed a hawk last week that measured four feet four inches from tip to tip.

We have heard of the following sales of tobacco since our last report: Perry Graybill sold to L. C. Westfall for 20 for leaf, 15 for lugs and 5 for flyings, with $50 off. Lewis Perrant to J. C. Groves, for $17 and $5 per hundred. Alex. Route to Frazee & Osborne, for $17 and $5.

Clarence Robertson's handsome face is slightly disfigured by a rat gnawing his nose while he was asleep.

Rev. W. W. Spates' pulpit at the Methodist Church will be filled next Saturday night by Rev. Gosling, of Brookville.

George F. Winter has finished two hundred panels of new plank fence along the pike on the farm recently purchased of E. K. Owens. Mr. Winter has two of the best fenced farms in this county.

We hear a great many complaints from the farmer about the continued rains. Campbell King says the ducks were swimming over his wheat fields last Monday.

There seems to be several aspirants for the office of constable in this precinct at the August election. We hear of the following candidates: Gideon Winter, Sam Heatt, J. W. Runyon, John O'Brien and R. L. Soward.

Red Foxes are more numerous in this neighborhood this winter than for years before.

E. W. Writt moves this week to near Lewisburg. We lose one of our best citizens. We commend him to the good people of Lewisburg as an honest, upright Christian gentleman.

HUE.

GERMANTOWN.

T. M. Dora, purchased from Chas. Fowler, of Mayslick, a fine horse for which he paid $165, cash.

H. O. Norris left Tuesday, for the Lone Star State.

J. C. Browning returned home Saturday. He has been attending the Ohio Medical College.

Mrs. Clifton, teacher of phonography, plain and ornamental penmanship, has opened a school at this place.

Hr. Charles Norris, returned Monday, from Chicago, where he has been attending the College of Homeopathy.

We have some scolastic and tenderhearted boys, in our town, especially some of our school boys. On Monday, seeing a cow in the school house yard they concluded to give her a shelter, or some academic instruction, (we didn't learn which) as they drove her into the hall of the Academy.

An entertainment, consisting of declamations, pantomimes, dialogues and etc., will be given Thursday, February 23d, at the Hillsdale Academy. This neighborhood consists of an enlightened people lovers of literary work in general. They have often expressed this feeling by attending the literary entertainments given by our town. We should retaliate as we now have an opportunity, by favoring them with our presence.

Dot.

From Another Correspondent.

Miss Mattle Cord, of Millwood, is visiting Miss Fannie Walton.

Misses Murry and Hardin, two handsome and intelligent young lady teachers have engaged to conduct a private school at this place soon.

Mrs. Clifton, has opened a writing school at this place with good success.

Elders J. B. Bruey and J. I. West, begun a protracted meeting at the Christian Church Sunday, February 9th.

Several crops of tobacco were sold in this neighborhood within the past week, at fair prices. James Mingua, sold his crop of tobacco to E. Williams for $16 per hundred pounds. Luther Henson sold to same party for $15 per hundred pounds. J. W. Thomas sold to same party for $14 per hundred pounds all round.

Our M. D. (mighty dry) correspondent of the Bracken Chronicle is rather inclined to be facetious in regard to his laborious duties as school trustee of the Germantown Abnormal Academy, he wants the school marm's sent straight to heaven in a hand-basket to be furnished with a passport from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, as a suitable reward for their faithful and efficient labors, M. D., himself deserves to be tucked away in one corner and is willing to be twisted in a double bow knot and utilized as a footstool. Like Josh Billings, in this respect, we have the most profound respect and sympathy for that class of professionals. We never fail to take off our hat to the district school teacher.

CLAUDIUS.

MURPHYSVILLE.

Willis Gault, has returned from a visit to Ohio.

W. S. Cliff, bought a buggy horse last week, for which he paid $150.

R. C. Bland has delivered all of his crop of tobacco, the whole crop weighing nine thousand pounds.

Mrs. E. L. Gault, has returned from Flemingsburg, where she has been on a visit for several weeks.

The public school at this place closed on the 10th inst., Miss Prather will, probably teach a spring term here,

R. L. Gault, reached home on last Saturday, having been out West for more than a year.

Jake Worthington has returned to Minerva, having left there a week or two ago, on account of scarlet fever.

The measles have been prevalent in this vicinity, but at this writing they have about disappeared from among us.

The new turnpike road that is to be built from Murphysville to intersect the Sardis pike was surveyed on last Friday.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, Rev. Thomas Handford failed to preach here at his last regular appointment, which was quite a disappointment to many persons.

Died, on the 17th, just the bright little babe of Scott and Pearlie Stevenson. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. Handford at the Presbyterian church on the 18th inst., after which the remains of the dear little one were followed to the Shannon cemetery by a large concourse of relatives and friends of the family, and it was there laid to rest to await the resurrection morn. "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, and blessed be the name of the Lord." For has he not said "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

P. E. M.

TOLLESBORO.

Miss Mattle Gillespie, an exceedingly interesting young lady of Cabin Creek, is the guest of the family of her uncle, R. L. Gillespie Esq.

Samuel A. Agnew a quondam citizen of the "Athens of Lewis" has become one of the "fixtures" of Tollesboro. Sam is connected with the "house of Gillespie" and has more friends to the square inch than any man in this "ballwick."

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 22, 1882.

The Governor of Virginia has vetoed the anti-dueling bill.

The Opera Festival at Cincinnati, closed Monday night with the postponed Patti concert.

The bill allowing Attorneys for the Commonwealth seven dollars a day for their services, has passed the Senate.

MAUD S. has been taken from her winter quarters in Cincinnati to New York. She is to be driven to the pole by Mr. Vanderbilt, alternately with Wm. H. and Lysander.

The bill to provide for taking the sense of the people upon the question of calling a constitutional convention has been postponed in the Legislature until Tuesday the 28th inst.

A BILL has been introduced in the National House providing that all silver coin, defaced or worn by ordinary use, shall be received by the Government and paid for in perfect coin at its original value.

The court-martial to try Sergeant Mason the charge of shooting at the murderer of President Garfield has met at Washington. The Sergeant complains bitterly of his treatment in prison as compared with that of the assassin.

The Grave of Mrs. Surratt.

The following relative to Mrs. Surratt, who was hung in this city in 1865 with the Lincoln conspirators, appears in the Washington Star: In Mount Olivet Cemetery, on the Bladensburg road, who, it will be remembered, was hung on the 2d day of July, 1865, as one of the conspirators implicated in the assassination of President Lincoln. Her body was buried in the Arsenal Grounds near the scaffold, with those of Payne, Harold and Atzerodt; and subsequently Wirz, of Andersonville, notoriety, was buried near them. While the bodies were lying there plain headboards were placed over their graves. When the old Penitentiary Building was torn down the remains of John Wilkes Booth, buried in the end of the building, and the bodies above named were all moved into one of the large store-houses of the Arsenal and placed under the flagging. About the close of President Johnson's Administration the bodies were surrendered to the friends or relatives of the deceased persons, and were removed elsewhere—those of Wirz and Mrs. Surratt being taken to Mt. Olivet. When the body of the latter was exhumed a black ribbon tied in a bow-knot was removed from her dress as a memento. A number of her former friends were present when the reinterment was made, in a lot at the extreme north-west corner of the cemetery. Stones marked with the letter "S" were set at the corners of the lot. With no other mark the spot was difficult to find without guidance, and Mr. Duffy, the sexton at the time and for several years afterward, was frequently called upon to point out the spot where Mrs. Surratt was buried. About 1865 Mr. Gustavus Craney, a stone-cutter residing in this city, was engaged in putting up some head-stones in the ground, and Mr. Duffy called his attention to the want of a stone to mark Mrs. Surratt's grave. Mr. Craney agreed to cut the letters on a stone if Mr. Duffy procured one. Mr. Duffy, having procured a stone, it was chiseled by Mr. Craney, who cut the name "Mrs. Surratt" upon it, and set it at the head of the grave. Since then there have been two other interments on the lot—one a grandchild of Mrs. Surratt, and the other Dr. Thomas, of New Orleans.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court since our last report:

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.
WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 22, 1882.

A DOZEN centuries ago
The Saxon King of Kent,
In memory of our Savior's fast,
Prescribed the term of Lent.
Though ages since have gilded by,
And error held its sway,
We keep the holy season just
As sacredly to-day.

The river fell several inches last night.

OUR merchants are busy this week.
Trade is good.

The matter of ferry rates between Maysville and Aberdeen has not yet been settled.

The high water is doing much damage to the river banks in Chester and East Maysville.

READ the advertisements in to-day's issue. By so doing you may learn something to your advantage.

TO-DAY being a legal holiday the markets at the business centers are closed and we have therefore no telegraphic report.

HENRY C. BENNETT, a wealthy farmer of White Oak, Greenup county, has been arrested at Portsmouth, Ohio, charged by Miss Amanda J. Losier of being the father of her two children.

The Bourbon News says: Yesterday (Tuesday), William Schatzmann, of Maysville, wedded Miss Laura Merrimee, daughter of Lewis Merrimee, of near Millersburg. Miss Effie Merrimee and Will Ballenger, were the attendants. Ceremony by Elder Taylor Sharrard.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Cassidy & Young, which is printed elsewhere. They have a fresh stock of choice family groceries which they offer at the lowest living prices. They make canned goods a specialty and are able to offer decided bargains in prices. Go and see them.

HISK & TUDOR's great show, in East Maysville last Saturday, we are pleased to say, was an entire success. By special request of many admirers of the eccentric drama, the entertainment will be repeated at Wood's Opera House next Saturday afternoon. The new and popular representation of the "French Locomotive" will be presented. Price of admission will be as usual but crooked or broken pins will not be taken.

The agent of the New England Opera Company has written to secure Washington Opera House some time in March or April, for a representation of Audran's charming opera of "The Mascot." We have a faint recollection that such an opera was given in this city several months ago, under the auspices of Messrs. Duke Martin, Horace January, Fred. Bierbower, George Thomas and others of our music-loving citizens, and we believe was a very excellent entertainment.

New Store.

Mr. J. Henry Pecor, who has just opened a new boot and shoe store on Second street, two doors west of the Bank of Maysville, is displaying a very handsome stock at the most reasonable prices. He desires especially to call attention to the line of ladies' and misses' shoes which will be found to embrace all the newest and most elegant styles of the most celebrated manufacturers. The public is invited to call and look at the stock. The goods will be shown with pleasure whether you desire to buy or not.

An Interesting Case.

A case that promises to be of more than ordinary interest, will, we are informed, be brought up for adjudication in the next circuit court. It is an action by Sheriff J. C. Pickett, against Mr. W. L. Moran, to recover the possession of a runaway hickory tree, which it is alleged Moran is harboring. The tree it seems, until a few days ago stood upon Mr. Pickett's farm near Maysville, apparently contented and satisfied with its surroundings, but for some unaccountable reason and without notice or permission, it quietly moved across to the farm of Mr. Moran taking with it a considerable quantity of earth and has not since returned. Mr. Pickett who has been deprived of the privilege of "hanging his clothes on a hickory limb," sues to establish his legal rights in the premises, and Mr. Moran who feels that there is a legal principle involved that is of importance to farmers and owners of hickory trees generally will defend to the last ditch. Messrs. George R. Gill, Coons & Sallee, G. W. Adair, and M. F. Marsh will appear for the plaintiff and Messrs. Leslie Worthington, A. M. J. Cochran, John Whitaker and Harry Wadsworth for the defense.

The following article is taken from the Louisville Post. The victim of Martin's murderous attack is the son of Mr. Dan Spaulding, formerly of this city:

Dan Spaulding who lives in the lower portion of the city, and who is engaged with his father in the tobacco business, was seriously if not fatally, wounded by one John Martin, and from all accounts it appears as if the murderous assault was entirely unprovoked. Saturday night as Mr. Spaulding was going to his home on Twenty-fourth and Madison streets, he stepped into Wetters' bar-room, and after settling some business, he asked Mr. Wetters, his son-in-law, and Louis Beck, who were in the saloon, to join him in a glass of beer, and while they while they were thus engaged Martin entered, being a stranger, at least to some of those present. He was under the influence of liquor at the time, and began a tirade of abuse on old man Wick, when Spaulding remarked to Martin, "We are having a friendly conversation, and you have nothing to do with it." At this Martin took offense and drew a knife, cutting Spaulding twice in the left side, the blade of the knife penetrating the lung, and in the face. The matter was kept quiet until yesterday, when Martin was arrested by Lieutenant Pennington and Officers Bradley and O'Mara.

This morning it was reported that the wounds of Spaulding were more serious than at first supposed, and when Martin was presented to the city court the case was continued until next Friday, and the accused committed to jail to await an examination. If Mr. Spaulding should die this will add another to the long list of murders now on the docket of the circuit court.

Sharon, Pa., are stopping at the Perkins House.

Mrs. Sallie M. Plummer has just closed the public school term at this place. Mrs. P. is a very popular educator and gave, as she always does, general satisfaction.

Ex-sheriff Samuel Ellis a man known from the center far beyond the circumference of this county, was stricken down, on Saturday last, with partial paralysis. His condition though critical is hopeful.

Born—to the wife of Mr. Robert Barkley on Sunday February 19th, 1882 a fine daughter Viola Perkins.

Col T. Burnham Oldam U. S. gauger and storekeeper was the guest of Vincent H. Perkins on Sunday last.

"Old Bull" is dead! Some one (afflicted doubtless with "transitory" mania) has "removed" him. He was a great biter and we doubt not but that,

From the shades of death's deep night,
His departed spirit views every flight,
And thinks on former darling.

The "amount of sales" of R. L. Gillespie on Saturday February 18 was $356.6 cents. This Mr. G. claims is the biggest day's work ever done by any firm in Tollesboro.

Our worthy P. M. is a man "whose arms of love would grasp the human race" and when informed on Sunday afternoon that the hand of charity was beckoning him toward a certain humble cottage, "stood not upon the order of his going but went at once," arriving just in time— to name the baby.

The Courier's account of the late fire here is incorrect in several particulars. The fire was not at night but at 11:30 a. m. The family with the exception of Mr. Jordon was at home. Everything was not lost but nearly everything was saved. Instead of being no insurance there was something over $500. VINCENT H.

MOUNT HEBRON.

Manley Trussel, of Tollesboro, was visiting friends at this place last week.

Miss Ida Stallenp, of East Maysville, is the guest of Misses Zira Evans and Maude Jordon, of Wilson's Bottom.

Mrs. Bettie Farls has returned from Cabin creek, where she has been spending a few days with relatives.

Miss Sallie Kopp has returned home from Maysville, where she has been spending several weeks with the family of J. W. Woodworth.

Thomas McDonald, one of our prosperous farmers, we regret to say, has sold his farm and contemplates moving to Chester, Mason Co.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church, South, which was held at Mt. Hebron Church has closed. Attendance small, owing to inclement weather. The meetings were conducted by Revs. Hardy, of Bethel, and H. C. Morrison, preacher in charge. PRUDENCE.

LIMESTONE.

A. D. Rains sold a fine three-year-old colt to Ed. Martin, of Brown county, O., for $135.

We regret to note the illness of Miss Maud Foster with inflammatory rheumatism.

Crick Ervin and sister, and Thomas Coughlin and sister, of Germantown, were visiting friends here last Sunday.

Miss Annie Redmond, of Maysville, was visiting the family of her uncle, Pat Claire the past week.

The recent protracted rains are discouraging to the farmers, as very little plowing has as yet been done.

Those contemplating growing tobacco will, as soon as the weather permits, commence burning plant beds.

The school exhibition last Friday evening was largely attended. The scholars delivered their pieces with credit to themselves and teacher. Mrs. Overly gave prizes to Miss Sallie P. Childs and Master Willie Overly as first and second best in orthography. AMATEUR.

Madam Adelina Patti in her Palace on Wheels.
Enquirer.

We had the pleasure of inspecting Madam Patti's hotel on wheels, in which she travels over the country to fill her engagements—

THE PARLOR CAR "DAVY CROCKETT."

On every side we are greeted with luxury and decorations of marvelous designs. First we enter the petit drawing room; then to the bed chamber in which the sweet "diva" rests, which has a downy couch hung with only curtains, a bath room connecting. Now to the kitchen with its range presided over by a French cook and six servants to attend the wants of the only "Patti;" then to the servants' apartments, which are in keeping with the rest of the palace. Last, but not least, we had the pleasure of hearing one of those sweetest toned Haines Upright Pianos. Who wouldn't travel this way with every want gratified. Is it not grand to be such a grand prima donna?

BATCHELDER'S Ventilated Egg Case.

Patented February 15, 1881.

Indispensable to Merchants Shippers
And Producers.

THE ONLY PRACTICAL
CASE.

The outside frame of this carrier contains five trays, held in place by fasteners at end of case, as seen in cut. These Trays are constructed in reversible halves. The above cut shows one whole tray tilted ready to be placed in case, each egg resting in its cardboard socket in such a manner as to be readily counted, candled, or transferred from tray to tray, or case to case, without rehandling.

For cold storage this case will store 60 dozen with racks made to receive the half trays, hence this is the cheapest storage case manufactured, saving largely in space.

The manner of holding the eggs on end prevents oscillation, rattling, or breakage, and adds greatly to their freshness when carried long in storage. Size of 30 dozen No. 1 cases 25x12x14, weighs over 20 pounds.

PRICES IN CHICAGO.

Shipper's No. 1, 30 doz. Case with Fillers complete 65 Cents.
Farmer's No. 1, 18 doz. Case with Fillers complete 55 Cents.

Cardboard Fillers for refilling 20 Cents.

15 per cent. discount on lots of 100 cases.

Batchelder's Egg Tester, 1 string 6 doz.

at once, saves to buyers many times its cost each season.

Price $3.00.

By special arrangements made by the manufacturers of this case most Railroads will receive them as fourth class freight.

The 18 dozen case made especially for Farmers' use, sent to any address by express, with out mailing, with full directions for sealing up, on receipt of 50 cents. Every Farmer and consumer should have one of these cases, it will save its cost every month. Agents wanted in every county. Address,
